

Spring Book Sale Success!

The Friends just completed a very successful Spring book sale!

Why do we have book sales?? The answer is to support the fantastic programs at the Rocky Hill Library!

The library provides a place where the community can come together and learn, be entertained, and discover new ideas. The enriching programs, arranged and provided by the creative library staff, are funded by money raised by the Friends. No taxpayer funds are used. As a Friends group, we recognize the importance of offering good programs in a clean, safe location for children, teens, adults, and seniors.

Many individuals were involved in our recent spring sale. It starts with a generous community who donates their gently used books. Friends' volunteers work year round to check for quality, sort by genre, and box the books for storage. A huge thank you to the high school students who helped with table set up and moving the boxes. Of course, we couldn't have had a sale without our Friends members who helped cashier, restock books, and reset the Stepney Room after the sale.

Appreciation goes to Longhorn Steak House, Bake Market, Sweet Valley Farms, and Mozzicato Bakery for their daily door prize gift cards which added excitement to the sale.

Thanks to everyone who made our spring book sale a huge success. It allows the Friends to continue to fund the wonderful programs at the Rocky Hill Library.

Hope to see you at the Fall Book sale October 9-13!
